

CHARTER OF THE MISSING THINGS

- #1 A little more togetherness
- #2 A centre
- #3 More consideration for each other
- #4 Speed-limiting provisions
- #5 Passages for pedestrians
- #6 Extend green zone
- #7 Put up signs: People live here
- #8 Protected and supervised zone without compulsory consumption for young people in the Berliner Ring:>> a utopia?
  - a) The City of Graz rents/ buys a ground floor flat and builds a terrace facing the courtyard.
  - b) The City of Graz leases the basement of the House of Community of the Ragnitz parish.
- #9 A district centre for Waltendorf
- #10 New forms of „sociability“ - despite Corona
- #11 New forms of greeting, communication and consumption
- #12 Spatial distancing - yes! Social distancing - no!
- #13 Consider pedestrian passages; implement prescribed passages; restore longstanding throughways. That would be quite normal!!
- #14 Sidewalks on every street with through traffic.
- #15 Professional management of the multi-generations house and a half-day position
- #16 More guests from the Eisteich Housing Estate in the café
- #17 A tunnel from south to north (for commuter traffic)
- #18 A well-maintained green space around the multi-generationshouse (is available and public land!!) with a drinking fountain where it is nice to linger. Could be a small village fountain. The house itself is listed and urgently needs renovation (facade). Would all be quite normal!!!
- #19 Design and widening of the old village centre.
- #20 A frozen puddle to jump into, so that it cracks nicely and splashes
- #21 Butterfly catchers who are passionate about getting lost in the thicket of undiscovered species
- #22 A playground for adults
- #23 Reinterpretation of the term „sandler“: the “sandler” spreads the moulds for brick firing with sand (here in the Eisteich Housing Estate)
- #24 A purposeless uselessness or idleness until poetry is created
- #25 Between shouting and whispering: listening to the landscape
- #26 So many things missing (expressed several times)
- #27 Sunset by the sea
- #28 Water in bathing quality in my city
- #29 Wild combinations
- #30 More meadows and trees in the public space of St. Leonhard and all other districts
- #31 Less parking spaces on public land
- #32 Better cycle path system
- #33 New cultures of learning
- #34 Silence
- #35 Albeit naive: world peace
- #36 Unconditional basic income

CHARTER OF THE MISSING THINGS

- #37 Better education - at all levels
- #38 A generous dog run
- #39 Do not gloss over precarious working conditions of artists/ scientists/ architects or even glorify them as a “role model
- #40 More courage to get involved, even if you don’t seem to be able to make much difference
- #41 Beach In Waltendorf
- #42 Pure joy
- #43 Generosity
- #44 The divided gate
- #45 “Kupa” (jiddish) > matchmaking
- #46 A jungle without security restrictions
- #47 Outdoor mass
- #48 Natural succession
- #49 More green and unsealed spaces
- #50 A chair for the beggar in front of the church
- #51 Himalayan Musk (rose!)
- #52 Outdoor swimming pool in St.Peter
- #53 instead of paved over “centre”: Atrium in a new centre
- #54 No cut bushes
- #55 Solutions and concept
- #56 Joy in small things
- #57 Street festival
- #58 No fences
- #59 Marking the (rare) trees
- #60 To table tennis through the undergrowth
- #61 Root tree
- #62 Listening to Waltendorf
- #63 Embankments at Terrace House Estate
- #64 Aluminum hat
- #65 Uselessness
- #66 Rust hole in the (green) grass waste container
- #67 The elegantly climbing pea blossom in front of the Police Head Quarters
- #68 More tree maintenance
- #69 Selflessness
- #70 The silent street
- #71 A bell tower as cube
- #72 Cars have more space than feet > revaluation
- #73 Hammock
- #74 Vegetable garden to plant together
- #75 “Measurement human being”
- #76 Free view of the Mediterranean (you just have to dig deep enough)